OUR MARY ANN.

Sing a song of nonsense.
Silly Mary Ann;
"Maw" is in the kitchen
Working like a man.
"Paw" is in the counting-house
Tolling hard for money;
You are in the parlor,
Don't you think it funny?
Sing your song of nonsense;
Some time, Mary Ann,
You'll be in the kitchen
Working like a man.
Husband in the counting-house.
Earning little money;
Daughter in the parlor,
Then it won't be funny.

—Chicago Sun.

WHAT SHOULD SHE CALL HIM.

What ought a wife to call her husband in speaking to a third person? Should she say, "My husband," or should she use the surname without any prefix, as Mrs. Carlyle used to talk of "Carlyle," or should she adopt another plan of that lady's and speak, as it were, of "Mr. C."? Perhaps it is a matter of indifference in England, but in France a woman's usage in the matter is taken as a test of breeding. In the provinces, it seems, wives speak of their husbands as "monsieur," as if their particular "monsieur" were superior to all others. Or perhaps they think this style expresses an indifference indicative of "bon ton;" "my husband" they imagine would be vulgar. With the polite world of Paris, on the contrary, "my husband" is accepted as the proper phrase, subject to two exceptions. A very affectionate wife may speak of her husband by his Christian name, while after a certain age any other style except the surname, with the prefix "monsieur," is held to be ridiculous and a sign of "provincialism."—Pall Mall Gazette.

A ROYAL FLOWER GIRL.

In Portugal as in England charity resorts to many devices to fill its coffers, and the other day Queen Maria Pia of Portugal did a great stroke of business as a vendor of flowers at a stall of a bazaar held at Lisbon for the benefit of poor children. The Queen's stall, a small wooden booth, was crowded, while all the other stalls around it were deserted, which was hard on the other stall-keepers. When monarchs take to shopkeeping, their subjects have little chance—a fact which in these revolutionary times should bring consolation to occupants of rickety thrones. When their crowns fall, a royal road to fortune will still be open before them. If to be "patronized by royalty" attracts many customers, what must be the drawing power of a shop in which all customers are "served by royalty?"—Pall Mall Budget.

VERDICT OF EXPERTS.

"Fetch in your corpse," demanded the foreman of a Texas Coroner's jury.
The body was laid before them.
The jury made a careful examination and questioned the attending surgeon.
"What was he shot?"
"Square through the heart."
"Dead in the centre of the heart."
"Right in the centre."
"Who shot him?"
"Jake Daniels."
A dozen witnesses declared Jake fired the shot, and Jake himself admitted it.
The jury consulted softly for some time.
"Well, gentlemen of the jury," said the Coroner, "what is your verdict?"
"Waal, Jedge, we've come to the conclusion that Jake Daniels is ther dandiest shot in these parts and don't you forgit it."—Chicago News.

LAST IN BED BLOWS OUT THE LIGHT.

Old Uncle Ploughgit and his wife were holding a sort of love feast the other night, recounting old times. As the worthy couple slowly prepared to retire, they went over the days gone by in a highly entertaining manner.
"Do you know, 'Riah, I feel just as young as I ever did?" said Uncle Ploughgit exuberantly.
"So do I, Enoch," spryly responded Aunt 'Riah.
Then a thought suddenly occurred to Uncle Ploughgit, and wheeling on his heel he cried out:
"Last in bed blows out the light!" and made a plunge for his side of the couch. His wife, though taken by surprise, was nothing behind him in sprightliness and their aged heads met about the middle of the bed with a startling thump. Aunt 'Riah doubled up on the floor, and old Uncle Ploughgit, rubbing the top of his head, muttered: "What two darned old fools we be, anyhow."

A SKILFUL SURGICAL OPERATION.

The American Ambassador at Vienna, Mr. Kassen, has lately forwarded to his Government an interesting account of a remarkable surgical operation lately performed by Professor Billroth, of Vienna, which, wonderful to tell, consisted in the removal of a portion of the human stomach, involving nearly one-third of the organ—and, strange to say, the patient recovered—the only successful operation of the kind ever performed. The disease for which this operation was performed was cancer of the stomach, attended with the following symptoms:—The appetite is quite poor. There is a peculiar inter-estible distress in the stomach, a feeling that has been described as a faint "all gone" sensation; a sticky shive collects about the teeth, especially in the morning, accompanied by an unpleasant taste. Food fails to satisfy this peculiar faint sensation; but, on the contrary, it appears to aggravate the feeling. The eyes are sunken, tinged with yellow; the hands and feet become cold and sticky—a cold perspiration. The sufferers feel tired all the time, and sleep does not seem to give rest. After a time the patient becomes nervous and irritable, gloomy, his mind filled with evil forebodings. When rising suddenly from a recumbent position there is a dizziness, a whirling sensation, and he is obliged to grasp something firm to keep from falling. The bowels costive, the skin dry and hot at times; the blood becoming thick and stagnant, and does not circulate properly. After a time the patient spits up food soon after eating, sometimes in a sour and fermented condition, sometimes sweetish to the taste. Oftentimes there is a palpitation of the heart, and the patient fears he may have heart disease. Towards the last the patient is unable to retain any food whatever, as the opening in the intestines becomes closed, or nearly so. Although this disease is indeed alarming, sufferers with the above named symptoms should not feel nervous, for nine hundred and ninety-nine cases out of a thousand have no cancer, but simply dyspepsia, a disease easily removed if treated in a proper manner. The safest and best remedy for removal of the disease is Seigel's Curative Syrup, a vegetable preparation sold by all chemists and medicine vendors throughout the world, and by the proprietors, A. J. White (Limited), 17, Farringdon-road, London, E. C. This Syrup strikes at the very foundation of the disease, and drives it, root and branch, out of the system.

St. Mary-street, Peterborough, November, 29th, 1881.

Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you of the benefit I have received from Seigel's Syrup. I have been troubled for years with dyspepsia; but after a few doses of the syrup, I found relief, and after taking two bottles of it I feel quite cured.

I am, Sir, yours truly,

Mr. A. J. White. William Breat.

September 8th, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues; one customer describes it as a "God-send to dyspeptic people." I always recommend it with confidence.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) Vincent A. Willis,

Chemist-dentist, Merthyr Tydvil.

To Mr. A. J. White, Seigel's Operating Pills are the best family physic that has ever been discovered. They cleanse the bowels from all irritating substances, and leave them in a healthy condition. They cure constiveness.

Spanish Town, Jamaica, West Indies, Oct. 24, 1882.

Dear Sir,—I write to inform you that I have derived great benefit from "Seigel's Syrup." For some years I have suffered from liver complaint, with its many and varied concomitant evils, so that my life was a perpetual misery. Twelve months ago I was induced to try Seigel's Syrup, and although rather sceptical, having tried so many reputed infallible remedies, I determined to give it at least a fair trial. In two or three days I felt considerably better, and now at the end of twelve months (having continued taking it) I am glad to say that I am a different being altogether. It is said of certain pens that they "come as a boon and a blessing to me!" and I have no reason to doubt the truthfulness of the statement. I can truly say, however, that Seigel's Syrup has come as a "boon and a blessing" to me. I have recommended it to several fellow-sufferers from this distressing complaint, and their testimony is quite in accordance with my own. Gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the excellent preparation, prompts me to furnish you with this unsolicited testimony.

I am dear Sir,

Yours ever gratefully,

(Signed) Carey B. Berry,

A. J. White, Esq., Baptist Missionary.

Preston, Sept. 21st, 1883.

My Dear Sir,—Your Syrup and Pills are still very popular with my customers, many saying they are the best family medicines possible.

The other day a customer came for two bottles of Syrup and said "Mother Seigel" had saved the life of his wife, and he added, "one of these bottles I am sending fifteen miles away to a friend who is very ill. I have much faith in it."

The sale keeps up wonderfully, in fact, one would fancy almost that the people were beginning to breakfast, dine, and sup on Mother Seigel's Syrup, the demand is so constant and the satisfaction so great.

I am, dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) W. Bowker.

To A. J. White, Esq.,

Hensingham, Whitehaven, Oct. 16, 1882

Mr. A. J. White.—Dear Sir,—I was for some time afflicted with piles, and was advised to give Mother Seigel's Syrup a trial, which I did. I am now happy to state that it has restored me to complete health—I remain, yours respectfully, (Signed) John H. Lightfoot.
